Yellow Hand Runs Sparkling Race to Take Morrisiana Handicap.

Rose Brigade and Sweepy Account for the Juvenile Races -Pickwick Again Beaten.

NEW YOFK, N. Y., July 18.—Yellow Hand is a good race, borse just now. In the past the Rossendale gelding has been washy and unable to hold his best form long. But Mr. Goldsborough has evidently got his measure, for Yellow Hand ran his sixth successive fine race this year to win the Morrisania Handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, perhaps his favorite route, at Empire City this afternoon. It was a good, fast race, too, with a first quarter in 24, the half in 48%, mile in 1:39% and the distance in 1:45%, only four-fifths of a second off the joint Empire City record of 1:44%, held by Borrow in 1915 and Spur in 1917. Both Borrow and Spur were smashers in their time and place.

Norrow and Spur were smashers in their time and place.

Yellow Hand won decisively, as he should have won, nor was he a short price, as he should have been considering the track—too hard for Royce Rools' best effort. Yellow Hand had plenty of weignt up, 122 pounds. Royce Rools was in light, with 109 pounds. Then there was modest Dr. Joe, with 97 pounds, and flashy Dimmesdale, with 109 pounds. Recount, Sedgefield, Dry Moon and Edwina stayed at home. Miller gets along well with Yellow Hand and rides him perfectly.

The English gelding always dominated the race. He was off in front, used his great speed for three-eighths in front, was steadied on the turn, went to the front in the stretch and won in a leisurely sort of way. Royce Rools, on the outside all the way, ran away from the others in the straight, but could not get near the leader. He was five lengths behind Yellow Hand at the winning post and two in front of Dr. Joe. During Yellow Hand's steadying spell—Miller took him off the pace—Dimmesdale made a flashy rush to the front. It was a mere bluff and he came home last, worn down in the closing strides by Dr. Joe.

ROSE BRIGADE LEADS ALL THE WAY.

ROSE BRIGADE LEADS ALL THE WAY.

Eight of the dozen two-year-old fillies in the five and a half furloug Sylvan Purse raced for it. The Rancocas Rose Brigade, a fast, generous youngster, with Fator on her back, got away well, took the lead at once and was never caught. Witchwork followed Rose Brigade and was slightly impeded by her—there was no foul—a furloug out. Witchwork didn't stay, even under the whip, and the Whitney filly Carmencita, forced into wide restraint, closed fast under punishment, beat Witchwork home and ran as good a race as the winner. Tulwar had no luck. Matches Mary had a clear path always. Little Mother took the long, wide way home. Only the first two were in the market. The Louis-Hildreth difference over selling prices and weights continued, and it cost Rancocas $1,505 to keep Rose Brigade within its fold. Wherever and whenever conditions are limber enough to open the racing gates for them the claiming plebeians enter. There were seventeen of them in the Palisades Purse, for a duel at a rade and a sixteenth. Thirteen of them stayed for the fray, with old Pickwick ruling a pronounced market—far too pronounced for such as he. He was backed as a surety and failed again. Tufter was well regarded by his patient party—he has been ready for business for some days. The others were only nibbled at. Rice is handy with money rides in the summer days, and contributed to Pickwick's favoritism. Tufter had Campbell up and was well served, off fast and rated in front. Rice followed similar tactics with Pickwick and moved up for business on the stretch turn. The pair ined a bard and intense drive all down the straignt, but Pickwick defaulted again, for, under a hard Fand ride, Tufter came home resolutely and finished first with Pickwick at his side, a good half a length to the bad. Scotch Verdict, always within striking distance, hadn't the speed to do be'ter than be thiffed only an open length way. However, Scotch Verdict is ready in his own group. So is Padua, which wasn't well ridden.

ARROW OF GOLD BES

ARROW OF GOLD BEST OF PLATERS.

Fourteen most mediocre three-year-olds of the selling plate division contested the Edgecliffe at five and a half furlongs. Arrow of Gold was made favorite, as she should have been on recent racing form. The Whitney stable colors seldom appear in selling races. They did here, as Princess Pandora bore the respected blue and brown. She had Coltiletti up and was second choice. Actress got sharp support. So did several others, All were false goods, but Arrow of Gold, Keogh up, was off in front with the Celt filly and hand rode her vigorously all the way and powerfully in the last sixteenth to win by a length from the rank outsider, Blue Belle, which closed stoutly under sharp punishment. With better luck on the turn Blue Belle might have won. Mr. Butler's Rhinestone, also an outsider, ran as well as either of the leaders. She was off in a tangle, made up ground entire race and closed fast at the finish to nip Nohant right at the winning post. Nohant had come from nowhere in the stretch. Actress and P. T. Barnum quit, Turnabout had no chance from the start and Celtic Lass was always on the rocks of impediment. Princess Pandora had no luck, but was evidently where she belongs.

The Xalapa Stable, of Blue Grass land and leanings, tried Fator on Sweep because Cliff Robinson, its regular money rider, is off on his wedding tour, Sweepy was a maiden. He had been tried a half dozen times and found wanting. Once or twice he cost his folks. They got back their own in the race for the Mapleton Purse for two-year-old sellers—non-winners of three races—at five furlongs and a half. Only nine of the seventeen entered went of selling race material of the future being plater sof the present and future. windsor. Ont., July 18.—Kenilworth Park, which gained fame last year as the scene of the great Man o' War-Sir Barton match race, is ready for next Wednesday's opening of what holds out every promise of being the most brilliant meeting in the history of the enterprising and progressive jockey club whose home is so picturesquely situated not far from this city. The track superintendent has been faithfully carrying into effect the ideas of general manager A. M. Orpen for the further embellishment of the track, and it will present an inviting appearance indeed when the gates are thrown open to the public on Wednesday for the inauguration of the meeting of seven days of the finest brand of sport that it is possible to provide with the lure of rich stakes and valuable overnight purses.

All of the important racing establishments whose horses have been campaigning in Canada this year will be on hand, together with the many notable stables from Kentucky that have been participating in the Windsor meeting. Besides these, there will be a number on hand that have not been figuring in the latter meeting. The problem of providing stabling accommodation for all the horsemen who are desirous of taking part in the Kenilworth meeting became so acute that manager Orpen was forced to the necessity of restricting stall reservations to horses actually ready to race. Fortunately, the adjacent tracks at Windsor and Devonshire will be able to take care of many stables unable to secure stalls at Kenilworth.

The Tolmie Handicap, around which racing secretary Wash Norvell has built a card of surpassing brilliancy for the opening day, is a race of great possibilities. It is at a mile and an eighth, and most of the horses that recently met in the running of the rich Frontier Handicap are eligible for this race, and the field will be composed of much the same horses that contended for the older prize at the Windsor track. Best Pal, winner of that stake, is among the eligibles and is regarded as a certals at tern. It is a Kiss and Externina ran second and third in the Frontier, are usely to be contenders at Kenilworth Wednesday, as are also Billy Kelly, The Porter, and other high-class eligibles.

Special arrangements have been made with the transportation companies for the prompt handling of the patrons. Three special trains will leave the Michigan Central station each racing day. The first will depart at 1 o'clock, the second at 1:30 and the third at 2 o'clock. In addition, the interurban line running from Windsor will put on a special service. The first race will be run at 2:45. Detroit time, and it is believed the last race will be run so as to give patrons ample time to reach their homes in seasonable time.

The staff of officials that will serve at the meeting will be almost identical with that of the present Windsor meeting. Presiding judge Charles F. Price, however, will not be among the officials. At the close of the Windsor meeting he will begin his usual summer vacation at Atlantic City.

got along well together after the son of Sweep had been pressed into favoritism. Zennotta and Darg got some support and Reparation was considered as a "good thing" by a wise few. Reparation, with Kelsay on his back, was away with a whirl and ran the first two quarters in 23½ and 24 seconds—fine speed for Yonkers. Zennotta was at him all the way. Fator showed riding wisdom. He kept close, but out of the lickety splitism in front and closing on, the racing leaders at the rails on the last furlong Sweepy wore both down and won, ridden out to the limit, by a length. Reparation had more stamina than Zennotta and was second. It was a well-spent trio that came back to the scales.

Only Domingo was absent from the field for the Seymour, at a mile and a sixteenth. The race was for maidens. The ten contestants were a drablot. One wishes—without hope—that the tribe would decrease by a faster method than winning elimination. But they were there and had to race—and for $1.300, too. There was another failure among ten. It was Smarty, which came from Maryland with a reputation he had mislaid after his entrance to a big city. Tom Welchy Find was made favorite. He is misnamed. Lucky Find was made favorite. Morvich, the two-year-old son of Runnymede—Hymir, again startled work watchers at Empire City this morning and turned in the fastest move ever recorded by local tracks within the observation of the present crop of second splitters. Morvich, with Cotiletti astride, broke at the three-quarter start, went an eighth in 10%, a quarter in 21% and easily rounded out the three furlongs in 34%, running the quarter in 21%. Morvich approached the American record for the distance made in 1890 at Butte, Mont., by Bob Wade, a four-year-old.

Horses of East and West Assembling at the Spa for Annual August Meeting.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., July 18.—With the opening of the local racing season only two weeks away this town is awakening from its customary quiet. Every day brings arrivals from all parts of the country in the shape of men and horses. Business stops while the natives and early visitors admire the sleek, sinewy thoroughbreds swathed to knees and hocks in cotton bandages as they are led through the streets by stable boys, who think that caring for a good racehorse is the topmost limit of human endeavor.

Many of these racers are from Kentucky and Canada, from which proving grounds some of the keenest competition for the horses of the East has come since the days of Longfellow and Harper and Forbes and Bill Bruce. This was the period when racing here was in its infancy and the sport began at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. It was the time of Wheatly, Morrissey, Reed, and Spencer, the first-named a student of racing conditions and a framer of programs that made him a notable figure in the world of sport.

As is usual, the westeners are sending a number of high-class horses here to contest supremacy with the best of the East. The rivalries of former years, when California made it a three-cornered duel, will be rekindled, and much good should come out of it all for the horse of blood. The breeder who is beaten this year will strengthen his forces in the hope of turning the tables later on.

BEST OF EAST AND WEST TO MEET.

While there is always the keenest sort of interest in the contests between the older horses over a long distance of ground at Saratoga, the public wants to see the crack two-year-olds in action. The West will send several crack youngsters to compete with the best of the East in the $30,000 Hopeful and other prizes. Conspicuous among these will be the sensational fillies Fair Phantom, by Light Brigade, and Miss Joy. by Peter Quince, which Montfort Jones bought from their breeder, Johnson N. Camden. Unforfunately what appears to be one of the best fillies in the East, My Reverie, is not well engaged here. She was not nominated for the Hopeful, Grard Unioa, or United States Hotel Stakes. The Flash on the opening day, or the Schuylerville later in the meeting, may bring these fine fillies together, otherwise the duty of uphelding the honors of the East will devolve upon the colls, of which the most conspicuous are Little Chief, Mustard Seed, Olympus, Broomster, Oceanic, Sweep By, Runstar, Morvich, Pillory, Draft, Kai-Sang and Column. There are many fine juveniles which have not yet shown their quality, however, and the best of the year may appear at any time in the rich Saratoga stakes.

Grey Lag would appear competent to hold his own with the western cracks, even with the penalties which he will have to assume for his many victories. Westerners a short time ago thought that Black Servant would take the measure of Grey Lag in the Travers, Miller or some of the other stakes here. Lately, however, the Rancecas representative has shown form which would warrant the belief that by the end of September he will be able to carry equal weights with any horse in training and win over any distance from a mile to four miles.

EDWARD BRADLEY'S FORMIDABLE STRING. While there is always the keenest sort of interest

EDWARD BRADLEY'S FORMIDABLE STRING. EDWARD BRADLEY'S FORMIDABLE STRING.

The stable which Edward Bradley will send to Saratoga to represent the West is the strongest that he has ever had. The Alabama, with its value of $10,000, will introduce the dainty English filly Bit of White to the East, but Nancy Lee is considered her equal, and with Prudery, Banksia. Careful and other good ones to help out, this stake ought to be worth witnessing. The good filly Flambette, winner of the Latonia Oaks, and the conqueror of Bit of White at a disadvantage of five pounds, is an absentee.

handicap division there is a wealth o material and the racing in which its members will take part should equal that of any in the history of the course. A few of the good ones in the Sara-toga and Merchants and Citizens' handicaps are of the course. A few of the good ones in the Saratoga and Merchants and Citizens' handicaps are Grey Lag, Mad Hatter. Externinator, Cirrus, Billy Kelly, Boniface, John P. Grier, Upset, Audacious, Donnacona, Yellow Hand, Black Servant, Nancy Lee, Eternal, Tryster, Star Voter, The Porter. Thunderclap, Lanius, Prudery, Dr. Clark, John Paul Jones, Best Pal, La Rablee, Rouleau, Gnome, Gladiator and Blazes.

Much the same quality is to be noticed among the nominations for the Saratoga Cup, at a mile and three-quarters. This test ought to bring out Grey Lag. Exterminator and every other stayer on the course. It is regarded by many as the most important race of the meeting and the management is entitled to the thanks of the breeders of the country for keeping it on the list.

WINNER OF RICH HUNGARIAN DERBY

The Hungarian Derby, for three-year-old colts, was run at Budapest, June 19. The distance was one and a half miles, and the net value to the winner $56,000. Here is the race summary:

13 to 10; 124 pounds (G. Nagy)

Dreher's Korom. 124 pounds (Schjbal)...
ount Lamberg's Krix-Krax, 124 pounds (Tam)

Huszar's Allamtitkar, 124 pounds (Szokolai)

Bocula and Csajkas also ran, Time, 2:36.

ORIGIN OF GRAND PRIX DE PARIS

It is not generally known that when the Duc de Morny founded the Grand Prix de Paris in 1863 during the second empire, there was a strong inclination to call the race after the Duc, just as the English great race takes its title from the Lord Derby of 1780. The event was finally called the Grand Prix de Paris out of compliment to the Conseil Municipal, which subscribed $1.000 to the stake.

WINDSOR, Ont., July 18.—J. R. Skinker's Eddie Rickenbacher accounted for the Belle Isle Handicap, which was offered as the feature attraction this afternoon, from a speedy band over the three-quarters distance. Besthoff finished in second place, while Sewell Combs was third. The winner was ridden by J. Butwell, set a terrific pace all through the race and covered the distance in 1:11½. Sewell Combs was the one offering closest contention for the first half, but gave way in the final eighth. Besthoff, which had been close up all through the first half, finished with a rush and was closing up on the winner at the end.

and brought together well matched fields. The crowd, much below the Saturday mark, was a large one for a Monday and was well rewarded by spirited racing.

A dash framed for maiden three-year-olds and over was offered as the opening dash and brought together a field of twelve. Tuscola was supported with rare confidence and rewarded her supporters by getting home in front of Josie Gorman and Black Baby.

Second Thoughts and Diadema, in a dash fashloned for two-year-old-fillies, drew the bulk of the betting support, and Second Thoughts was returned an easy winner from the Ross starter, with Helen Rogers third. The two ran head and head for the greater part of the distance, but through the final eighth Second Thoughts was returned as a winner from the Ross starter, with Helen Rogers third. The two ran head and head for the greater part of the distance, but through the final eighth Second Thoughts was returned as a fast coming third next to the inner rail. When well inside the final sixteenth Diadema swerved over to the Inside rail and bothered Helen Rogers. Mooney lodged a complaint of foul, which was not allowed. The race was an expensive one for jockey T. Parrington, as he was suspended for five racing days by the stewards for impeding Diadema during the running.

E. B. McLean's The Porter accounted for an allowance race, which was offered as the fifth, at a mile and a sixteenth. The McLean racer was ridden by Butwell, which gained his second victory of the day and came from behind to pass Jim Daisy and win by less than a length. Bygone days was third. The fractional time for the race was the fastest of the meeting, while the time for the full distance. 1:44%, was but one-fifth of a second slower than the track record, established by Great Britain. The Porter was supported with rare confidence by the favorite backers and was a great favorite.

GREY LAG TO RACE AT KENILWORTH

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 18.—Windsor, Out., is to be congratulated on the fruits of the enterprise of its race track managers. Last year A. M. Orpen staged the Man o' War-Sir Barton match at Kenilworth and now through the liberality of the Western Racing Association the decision of the three year-old championship for the current year seems thave been taken away from Saratoga by the offer of a purse of $20,000 for the Devonshire International. Black Servant, the premier western claimant of the title, is on the grounds to defend his laurels and Sam Hildreth yesterday announced that Grey Lag will be shipped to Canada to do battle with the son of Black Toney.

Grey Lag will leave here a week from Wednesday in care of David Leary, and jockey Sande will go to Windsor to ride the son of Star Shoot in the Devonshire International on July 30.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

The Danish Derby, run for at Copenhagen, was won by M. Schulstad's Lady Skip, an English daughter of Admiral Hawke and Skip.

All Phil Chinn's Himyar Stud horses, mares and youngsters are to be sold at Saratoga next month. The buoyant Colonel will then retire—for a while. The well-known Australian cross-country jockey Portuguese extraction, Anselmo Martinez, was illed last month by a fall in a race at the Flem-agton course of Melbourne, Australia.

A fine old Australian jockey, John Stevenson, has been killed as the result of a railway accident. In 1895 he won the Melbourne Cup., the Oaks and the South Australian Derby on Auraria.

It turns out that the sudden death of Humorist. the Epsom Derby winner, was caused by the bursting of a blood vessel. His body has been interred under a shaft at Childwickbury, the Joel Stud.

There are loud calls on the other side for a cut in the fees of half a dozen $2,000 priced sires. None but two are accounted as worth nearly that amount. The one or two are Sunstar and The Tetrarch.

The New Zealand record holding five-year-old Surveyor, whose half mile in 45% as a two-year-old is the fastest on record for the world, has gone wrong all around and has been retired. He is by Nassau—Pedometer. As a three-year-old Surveyor was only beaten a head by Cetigne when he made the Australasian mile race record of 1:37.

TWO-YEAR-OLD RACING WAILS CONTINUES

Turf III Doctors from All Corners Sing "Swan Songs."

Americans Praise What British Condemn-Imported Boosting the Basic Melody.

(BY SALVATOR.)

(BY SALVATOR.)

I have often been amused by imagining the case of the beginner in racing lore who endeavors to "post" himself by a study of the self-styled turf doctors, have always in the end found my powers of imagination beyond the task, and have abandoned it with the mental reservation that as the unfortunate in question was bound to lose his reason there was no reason why I should lose mine.

It is the old, old story: "Who shall decide when doctors disagree?" No doctors ever have disagreed with more continuous unanimity than those who prescribe for sufferers afflicted by what is known as the "breeding problem." The result is that the said sufferers either, through the knowly aid of nature, ultimately recover, die in padded cells or become "confirmed cases," who wander about the world making its creatures and themselves miserable together.

The pedigree doctors! And their wares! And the concoction thereof! Oh, for the pen of an O. Henry or Max Beerbohm with which to describe them! There is nothing else in the universe for a moment to be compared with them. To emulate our old friend Polonius, they stand alone, are facile princeps and ne plus ultra. If you are a prey to monotony and long for mental dissipation, just attempt to follow them in their gyrations. The result will be a case of vertigo such as could in no other way be obtained, and though you may never be quite the same afterward, at least you will have got your money's worth of cerebral sensation. Incidentally it is well to have a pitcher of ice water at land and a big bandage for your aching brow.

REMEDIES NOT IN AGREEMENT.

The other day I picked up one of our journals which features the sport of kings and found therein one of the periodical fulminations against excessive two-year-old racing. This struck a sympathetic chord in my bosom. It is one of my pet theories. But I found as I read along that this was not the real crux of the argument. What the writer really was getting at was that the only way to save the American thoroughbred was by importing all our sires from the "other side." This was because, owing to the two-year-old racing abuse, we ruined everything we had for stud purposes before the wheat could be winnowed from the chaff. Hence the imminent necessity of more and larger importations from Newmarket and other corners. Otherwise ruin stared us in the face.

Then, as it chanced, I picked up an English journal of similar character and therein found the lucubrations of another curer of turf ills, who, though writing from the more or less holy soil of Newmarket itself, was dilating upon—what, do you suppose? Nothing else than the curse of too much two-year-old racing and how it was ruining that bulwark of the nation—the British turf—not only in so far as racing itself was concerned, but in the demoralization of the bred of horses, the last and greatest of all evils.

Now, having read first the American—if he 7 an American—commentator, and then the British, and put this and that together, how, I ask, is one

Now, having read first the American—if he is an American—commentator, and then the British, and put this and that together, how, I ask, is one to put out the fire that is burning the house down by pouring gasoline on it? How are we going to build up the demoralized American thoroughbred by filling him fuller and fuller of the blood of the demoralized British one? As Frank Daniels used to warbbe in the "Wizard of the Nile:" "Star light, star bright, first star I've seen tonight, Tell me, tell me, all that I wish to know!" It would seem, would it not, that only the stars in their courses could help us out of such diredifficulties?

How are we going to build up the demoralized American thoroughbred by filling him fuller and fuller of the blood of the demoralized British one? EARLY RACING WAS HEALTHIER.

The entertaining thing about it all, to me, as one who has watched the progress—if you choose to call 'it that—of the American thoroughbred for more years than it is necessary to confess, is the fact that in former days when imported blood was not nearly so prevalent in America as it is today, two-year-old racing was a small and comparatively unimportant feature of the sport, and sprinting, in any form, only in its infancy. In those benighted intervals, when the "Figure System" was as yet unborn, even in Bruce Lowe's brain, and futuries far in the future, such a thing as a Derby at any thing but the mile was a constant of the "gameness" displayed in a dash of six or seven furlongs would have got pitying contempt. The now-despised "American families," were then in their glory, and those of their members, with any pretentions to class, who couldn't as three-year-olds go a mile and a half in good style, and, if older, considerably farther, occupied humble corners in the hall of equine fame.

The reign of the specials of maported blood, and as this delige has continued to rise over higher and higher, the decadence of the breed now so complained of has become steadily more marked. Consult, if you will, the tables of "Leading Sires of the Season," recently printed in Daily Racing Rolling Sires of the Season," recently printed in Daily Racing Rolling Sires of th

The stewards of the meeting issued the following ruling: "The claim of Harry Kearney for Old Dad in the first race of July 16 is held disallowed on the ground of collusion, George W. Morgan and Harry Kearney are denied the privileges of the grounds and the matter is referred to the stewards of the Jockey Club for further action."

The haltermen spent an active day. After S. Louis had bid up Rose Brigade in the opening race, A. Smith claimed Tufter for $2,700, J. A. Coburn took Padua for $2,201, P. J. Touhy outbid half a dozen claimants for Reparation at $2,855 and M. Grant got Zennotta for $2,001,

G. W. Carroll has weeded all of the A. B. Spreckels youngsters, with the exception of Runstar. He sent the four remaining horses in the barn to Canada. Avispa was sold to T. O. Webber. Leipsic, Runatrix and Dr. Leggo, filly in the Canadian stable, will be shipped back to the farm.

MAISONNEUVE PARK RACING TODAY

MONTREAL, Que., July 18.—A conference was held here this morning between a committee representing the horsemen and the management of Maisonneuve Park regarding the purse distribution during the meeting which opens tomorrow. The horsemen requested $500 purses. A compromise was effected and five races each day will have $450 added, while two races will be $500 value. Tomorrow the fourth and seventh races will be those worth $500.

J. T. Buckley's Hemlock scored a decidedly lucky yietory in the selling handicap, the fourth, and worth $500.

J. T. Buckley's Hemlock scored a decidedly lucky victory in the selling handicap, the fourth, and feature attraction of the concluding day's racing at King Edward Park this afternoon. Tarascon appeared an easy winner nearing the stretch turn, where he ran out. This enabled Hemlock to beat Tarascon a short length, with American Eagle a creditable third.

Lady Betty annexed the initial dash for Canadian-bred horse's after leading throughout.

Ex-jockey J. Russell's Baby Vamp graduated from the maiden ranks when she scored most decisively in the second race for two-year-olds.

John F. Ryan, manager of the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding, is in receipt of $251, a contribution from the Montreal Driving Club, which operated the recent Delorimier Park meeting. A similar amount will be donated by all the tracks racing under the jurisdiction of the Quebec Breeders' Association from each meeting. The money will be applied to the work of the breeding bureau, which is Dominion wide.

Leo Dandurand, secretary of the Quebec Breeders' Association, has been appointed guardian of the mare Fair and Warmer by the superior court of Montreal pending the outcome of legal proceedings now being taken over the reward offered for the recovery of the mare following her mysterious disappearance from Blue Bonnets last fall.

For practices detrimental to the best interests of the turf jockey H. Lafferty was today indefinitely suspended.

Jockey J. Dominick was indefinitely suspended today by the judges for not being in condition to fulfill his engagements.
